Contributions to this committee are not tax deductible.

No limit applies on the amount a donor may contribute to this committee. Foreign nationals may not contribute. This contribution must be made from your own funds on a personal or entity account for which you have legal obligation to pay or authorization to control, and not the funds of another unless properly disclosed to the Committee. If an individual directs and controls one or more businesses, the individual and the business(es) are affiliated and contributions are aggregated or if multiple businesses are directed and controlled by a majority of the same persons, the businesses are affiliated and contributions are aggregated. You must notify the committee if you have "directed and controlled" contributions to the committee from more than one source that must be aggregated. If your contribution(s) to this committee and to other California state or local committees total(s) $10,000 or more in a calendar year, California law requires you to file disclosure reports as a Major Donor Committee. For more information about Major Donor Committee reporting, contact the Fair Political Practices Commission at (866) ASK-FPPC, send an email to advice@fppc.ca.gov, or refer to their website: www.fppc.ca.gov.
